
CARNEGY WINDOW DEDICATION

Mrs. Margaret Carnegy was a member of Elmwood Avenue Church for over 60 years. Marg participated in many of the church activities including Friendship Circle and the Couples Club.

Marg was the Bible reader. She attended Dr. McQuen's Bible class with many of the women of Elmwood and read her Bible most days. Marg found comfort in a personal relationship with the Lord.

Marg was a registered nurse, graduating from Victoria Hospital in 1943. She was proud to be recognized as a member of the professional medical community. The Bible and the RN insignia are represented in her window.

The lilies represent purity, piety and innocence, all medieval symbols of the Christian faith.

It is the hope that the windows dedicated to Marg and Bob Carnegy will bring beauty and a sense of comfort to all who ponder their beauty.
